

CURTIS, HEINZ,
GARRETT & O'KEEFE P.C.

KENNETH J. HEINZ
PRINCIPAL

Ken concentrates his practice in business transactions; cable television law; computer, MIS and information technology; condemnation law (eminent domain); construction; employment matters; municipal law; probate, trust and estate administration; real estate; telecommunications; tort litigation; trials and appeals (complex litigation); urban development and tax increment financing.

BACKGROUND

After receiving his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois, summa cum laude (and Phi Beta Kappa), Ken earned his law degree from Washington University School of Law. He is licensed in all Missouri State Courts, all Illinois State Courts, the U.S. District Court – Eastern and Western Districts of Missouri, the U.S. District Court – Southern and Central Districts of Illinois, the U.S. Court of Appeals – Seventh and Eighth Circuits, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

LAW PRACTICE

After graduating from Washington University School of Law, Ken served as a law clerk to the Honorable James A. Finch, Jr., of the Supreme Court of Missouri.

Ken currently serves as the city attorney for the cities of Richmond Heights and Country Club Hills, Missouri.

In addition to the Missouri Bar Association, Ken is also a member of the St. Louis County Bar Association and the Municipal Attorneys' Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, for which he is President.

Ken has been active as special counsel to many municipalities in Missouri and Illinois on redevelopment and telecommunications issues. He has delivered seminars to numerous public and private groups at the local and state level on municipal issues. Ken has written articles for the St. Louis Bar Journal, Urban Law Annual and the Missouri Bar Journal and is a regular contributor to the Missouri Municipal League magazine.

Ken serves as chairman of the Veteran's Memorial Committee, a citizen's committee established to provide a suitable and lasting memorial to all veterans who have served the United States of America. He also is a member of St. Louis Volunteer Lawyers and Accountants for the Arts.

To reach Ken, call 314.725.8788 or email him at kheinz@chgolaw.com.