

EDWARD J. SLUYS
PRINCIPAL

Ed concentrates his practice in the areas of local government law, public election, public utilities, civil litigation and appellate law, as well as handles a variety of business transactions.

BACKGROUND

Originally from England, Ed received his law degree from the University of Sheffield School of Law, attending the University of Wisconsin Law School as an exchange student for a semester.

LAW PRACTICE

Ed is licensed by the Missouri Bar, the U.S. District Court – Eastern and Western Districts of Missouri, and the U.S. Court of Appeals – Eighth Circuit. He currently serves as the city attorney for the cities of Charlack and Kimmswick, Missouri and as the prosecuting attorney for the City of Winfield, Missouri. Proficient in French and German, Ed has briefed cases before the Missouri Court of Appeals and the Missouri Supreme Court, as well as argued before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Ed is a member of the Missouri Bar Association, the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, the Municipal Attorneys Association of Metropolitan St. Louis (for which he is treasurer), and the American Bar Association.

AWARDS, RECOGNITION & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Recognized as a rising star in the St. Louis legal profession, Ed was an honoree in the St. Louis Business Journal's "30 Under 30" class of 2014.

An active member of the St. Louis community, Ed serves on the Clayton Chamber of Commerce board and as president of the Parties in the Park committee.

To reach Ed, call 314.725.8788 or email him at esluys@chgolaw.com.